SOCIETY CHRONICLES

JULIA MURDOCK'S GOSSIP PAGES

SMAPPER POP POP

Miss Wilson, Interested in Economics, To Join Monday Evening Club

Miss*Jessie Wilson Makes an Address at Westbury, Long Island.

DISTINGUISHED audience fitled the New National last night to see Eigie Ferguson in her new "The Strange Woman," the President and Mrs. Wilson and their party occupying two boxes. With them were Miss Wilson, Miss Eleanor Wilson, Miss Helen Woodrow Bones, John Bassett Moore and Dr. Cary T. Grayson. the President's aide.

Miss Wilson has shown her interest in local affairs by allowing her name to be proposed for membership in the Monday Evening Club, which is devoted to the betterment of social conditions.

While Washington holds the interest of Mrs. Wilson and Miss Wilson, New York is not less fortunate, and yesterday Miss Jessie Woodrow Wilson spokt at the home of Mrs. Willard D. Straight at Westbury, L. L., on "Girls of Out Nation and the World." Her address was drawn from her work as a member the National Board of the Y. W.

The Second French Secretary and Madame L. de Laboulaye, who took apartments at the Shoreham upon their return to Washington from Europe where they spent the summer, have leased the residence at 1532 Twenty-sec

Major Count de Chambrun who is retiring from the diplomatic corps after avenue tomorrow. He will be accoming the season have been chosen for the a service of several years in Washing- panied by Princess Traidos Prabandh ton as military attache of the French paratory to sailing for France tomor-Countes, at her home in Cincinnati, and R street in the near future. came to Washington on Monday, and time here was spent in saying good- place from Old Point Comfort, where by to her friends, and she and the they spent several weeks. Count dined with friends last night. One of the pleasant remainders of issued from the Putman presses, "The season. Sonnets of Shakespeare: New Light and Old Evidence "

The Ambassador to England and Mrs. Thomas Nelson Page have accepted the Swanson, and will go to Virginia to evening in St. Margaret's Episcopal invitation of the Institute of Journalists remain for several days. They, will Church, when Miss Christine Fox, to be present at their banquet, to be make the trip by automobie, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Edwin given in London on December 13.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Reynolds Hitt, near Richmond. have returned to Washington and opened their house for the winter spending the summer at Beverly Farms,

A reception was held yesterday afteroon from 2 until 4 o'clock at the Women's Christian Temperance Union Building, 522 Sixth street, in honor of the visiting foreign delegatés en route to the World's W. T. C. U. convention hich opens tomorrow in Brooklyn. Receiving the guests were Mrs. John Culbertson, Mrs. G. T. Prewitt, Mrs. Marsh, Mrs. M. H. Fearnon, Miss Addresses were made by several of the delegates and greetings were received from the Methodist Episcopal women in conference in Foundry guests.

Mrs. Fred Dennett, who spent the summer visiting in Wisconsin and Seattle, Wash., returned to Washington yesterday and opened her residence in

Q street for the winter. The Congressional Club will be opened on Wednesday evenings and members Ridge Summit, Pa. and their husbands are invited to come

Saturday, from 10 o'clock in the morn- years, and has again opened her house ing until 6 o'clock in the evening, will at 1731 N street for the season. he devoted by the board of lady man. Fowler is the daughter of the late Eliagers of the Episcopal Eye, Ear and Throat Hospital to holding a reception at 1147 Fifteenth street, the event being their annual day at home for re-Sunday, October 26, the rectors of all Episcopal churches of Washington will ciation, for the "mountain room" at devote their sermons to the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore ingalls have mountain per returned to Washington from a visit in from them the West to their daughter, Mrs. H. H. at the rooms to welcome Paintor, wife of Lieutenant Paintor, U.
S. N. and are now the guests of another daughter, Mrs. Bristow, at her other daughter, Mrs. Bristow, at her winter at 1858 Columbia road, and her her Ingalis will go to New York at the Holbrook's daughters have joined

Copyright by Harris & Ewing PRINCESS TRAIDOS PRABANDH.

Prince Traidos Prabandh, who estabished the Siamese legation at the Wiliamson cottage, Eastern Point, Gloucester, Mass., early in the season, will and the members of the legation staff.

her life in Washington, which the their home in Massachusetts avenue and Penn Turner, Miss Ruth Hitchcock, Countess is leaving behind for her have with them their niece, Miss Giadys Mrs. Evans Sinclair Cameron, Mr. Racountrywomen, is her book soon to be Kibbey, who will make her debut this cedo of the Argentine legation, Capt.

> The Vice President and Mrs. Marshall Mrs. Swayzee. will leave Washington today in company with Senstor and Mrs. Claude Vice President will make a speech at Fox, was married to George Lewis one of the county fairs now being held Towne, of Des Moines, Iowa. The wed-

Secretary of State and Mrs. is here to attend the congress of the and friends. W. C. T. U., and several other of the foreign delegates dined informally last night with Mrs. John B. Henderson, who, though in deep mourning, kept a custom established years ago of entertaining the foreign delegates to this

The Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. L. F. Olney, Mrs. G. C. Morris, Mrs. L. Daniels were guests at a dinner party entertained on board the Dolphin last night, when Commander George William lace. Laws, U. S. N. in command of the Dolphin, and Mrs. Laws were hosts, There were a number of additional with orange blossoms. The bridal bou-

> Mrs. James C. Pilling and her daughter. Miss Ruth Pilling, have returned Washington and opened their house in Fifteenth street for the season. Mrs Pilling and Miss Pilling spent last winter and spring in Europe and returned to this country in the early summer, going to their place at Blue

Mrs. A. H. Fowler has returned to Washington after an absence of two hu Washburn, who was minister to France at the time of the siege of

A simplicate of the hand-woven cus ordered by Mrs. Wilson through the dainty French muli frock and carried a Southern Industrial Educational Asso-make it their future home, and at Atlantic City.

Turkish Ambassador Has Re- 66 TY ONG, you must come to your supper, the rice is turned to the Capital From Beverly Farms.

Youssouf Zia Pacha, ambassador of curkey to this country has returned to the Capital from Beverly Farms where with his family and members of the embassy staff he spent the sum-

Before leaving Washington the ambassador gave up the residence in Connecticut avenue which has floated the Turkish flag for several years, and is staying at the Shoreham until he can find another residence which he deems suited to the uses of an embassy.

Dr. and Mrs. Morris S. Murray have returned to Washington and will remain at the Shoreham until they settle more permanently for the winter. They have spent several years abroad.

Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh has gone with them this afternoon for Panama. Mrs. Garrison spent some weeks with Mrs. Walsh at her cottage at Bar Harbor last summer.

The first of a ceries of Dansants to be eld tri-weekly at the Shoreham took place yesterday afternoon in the French charming afternoon costumes lent a attended the wedding were Mr. and the loss of her pearl. Tuesday, Mrs. Ernest Spaulding, of Grinnell, Little Wong stood reutrn to the legation in Rhode Island Thursday and Saturday afternoons dur-

York, are in Washington as the guests Mrs. William Payne Meredith, Mr. and of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Mrs. Frederick Holtzman, Mrs. A. T. hat. row. Countess de Chambrun, who with B. Butler Mr. and Mrs. Butler are pre- Britton, Miss Margaret Britton, M. M. After December 1 they will be at home their children, have been visiting Mrs. B. Butler Mr. and Mrs. Butler are presidence Parker, jr.; Miss Ruth Parker, Miss Mc. in Des Moines, Iowa. Nicholas Longworth, mother of the at the corner of New Hampshire avenue Cartney, Miss Edmonston, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fuller, Lieutenant Searles, Miss Lutz, Miss Eleanor Morgan, Dr. and Mrs. Alex F. Magruder have Dudley Morgan, John Brooks. Count Almost every moment of her returned to their home in Jefferson Peachy Spencer, Daingerfield Spencer, Cuthbert Brown, Miss Collier, Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Mann, the Misses Hickey, Mrs. Dilwarth Hibbard, Lieut-The Misses Kibbey have returned to enant and Mrs. Pyne, W. Bowie Clarke, Warren Dean, Britton Browne, Arthur Browne, Henry Dickson and Mr. and

A beautiful wedding took place last ding ceremony, which was performed at 8 o'clock by the rector of the church, the Rev. Herbert Scott Smith, was at-Bryan, Lady Howard of England, who tended by a large gathering of relatives

Quantities of palms, ferns, smilax vines, and white chrysanthemums and lilies of the valley adorned the church, the color scheme being green and white the bridegroom's fraternity colors, and the valley lily being the fraternity flower. The wedding music was played by the organist of the church, given in marriage by her father, wore a handsome draped gown of white crepe charmeuse trimmed with rose point Her veil, which was made of rare old Brussels lace which has been quet was a shower of lilles of the val-matron of honor, were a beautiful gown of white charmeuse draped with green chiffon and carried a shower bouquet of maidenbair ferns and lilies of the valley. She wore a dainty mob cap of green maline with clusters of valley

Miss Ethel Towne, of Des Moines, mony, Iowa, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Antoinette Ray, Miss Laurie E. Smith, bridesmalds. They were dainty gowns of shaded green chiffon over white satin and carried shower bouquets of maidenhair ferns and wore green maline caps.

the bride, was flower girl. She wore a basket of lilies of the valley.

For The Times' Children Just Before It's Bedtime

THE CRYSTAL CAVERNS-Part 1.

getting cold," said the mother of a Chinese boy who a long time ago sat one evening on the prow of a junk. "It is the Feast of the Fishes, and we must hang up our lanterns and burn the punk by dark.

Wong lived with his mother on oat. A strange place, but many hun dred poor people in China make their and other small wares. He hardly ever went on land, but spent his time in nelping his mother and fishing over the side of the junk. A queer-looking thing, it was, too, with its red sail and the figures painted gaudily over its planks This evening Wong ate his rice quickly. then ran on deck again, for on shore the lanterns were being lit and the odd music of the Chinese sounded from the groves and temples. Far up the river he could see the great ship in which the Emperor sailed coming down, a golden vessel with silken sails, gliding down over the gleaming water in the New York to join the Secretary of low of the sunset. On the deck on a the royal family." War and Mrs. Garrison, and will sail couch of purple velvet lay the princess Chu, surrounded by guards and fanbearers. As the royal boat passed by the junk on which stood Wong, the boy > receiving the guests, wore a handsome gown of lavender brocaded satin. Among those from out-of-town who bridegroom. bright flowers add much to the peauty Towne left Washington for a wedding and find enough sweetmeats to last to amuse her, and make her forget. trip to the Northwest. Mrs. Towne them a year. uncut velvet, with a small blue velvet chirped the wee elf. "I imagine it has And Enjoy Show.

Personal Mention.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Schaefer, of Capitol Hill, have issued invitations for a dance to be given at their home Monday evening. October 27, in honor of their daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Eisinger entertained a children's party at their home, 528 Third street northwest, last evening, in honor of the third birthday anniversary of their son, Frederick Louis Eisinger Among the children present were Decatur Sullivan, Paul Coder, and Eleanor Penn, Sherley Levitt, Francis and Helen Pearl, and Ruth Roland, of Washington, and Gloria Garcia and Joseph Hooper, of Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Ervin held an informal reception at their new home, 924 Spring road, last evening. The rooms devoted to the reception were decorated with flowers and autumn eaves. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Willis S. Mason, parents of the hostess, the Rev. and Mrs. H. S. Pinkham, Mr. and Mrs. Eastwood, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Grening, Mr. and Mrs. Oatman, Mr. and Mrs. Sparrow, Mr. and Mrs. Fleharty and Miss Fleharty. Misses Alberta Hunt, Virginia Ray mond, Ruth Davison, Ruth Pope, Katharine Bowman, Eugenia Bouic, Gertrude Lombard, Lou Lombard, Isabel Atkinson, Herbert Brooks, Leonard Bowen, and Clinton Thompson. -+-

Miss Olga Hempstone has returned to her home in New York, after a visit in Washington. Miss Hempstone and her amily were formerly residents of the Capital. ----

Mrs. Katherine Warder announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Susan Virginia Warder, to Charles Arthur Smith, on Saturday, October 18, at the ardinal's residence in Baltimore. The Rev. P. C. Gavan performed the cere-

Seen in the Shops

appreciate the feelings of the "little fly upon the wail"who ain't got no clothes 'tall' Blankets and comforts are dragged from their lairs and when there are Nathan Clarence Towne, of Des none to coax out from pleasant dreams one condition, which is that you catch the White House, is on exhibition at Moines, brother of the bridegroom, was smid the moth balls, the department and tame for me the fierce scahorse and contributions will be taken for its the headquarters of the association, the best man, and the ushers were stores willingly supply the lack. At that lives in a dark hole about a mile room 331, Southers, building, together Harvey Randall Wicks, of Saginaw, the shop at the corner of Eighth street with many other arcies made by the Mich.; Edgar Woodbury Bowen, of De- and Market space, wood nap mean. Harvey Randall Wicks, of Saginaw, the shop at the corner of Eighth street from here. The only way it can be Oper, and recently received troit; Frank Boughton Fox and New-white and tan blankets, 66 by 80, and chanted bridle, but that hangs in the There is all average one one ton Kennedy Fox, brothers of the bride, be had at $2.25 the pair. Some of these temple in the sacred grove in the Em-After the wedding ceremony a recep- plankets are also made in light and peror's grounds. tion at the home of the bride's parents dark plaids which are very attractive in Twenty-first street followed. Palms, Silkoline covered comforts, in light and ferns, and clusters of lilies of the valley dark designs may be had for $5 cents. and white chrysanthemums adorned the These are special prices; more expenhouse, and a string orchestra played sive and finer quality coverings may be his week, and later will go to there after a visit in New Hampsh mother of the bride, who assisted in floor.

Light Your Way—Get a Flashlight, 690 make it their future home, and at Atlantic City.

shind his back and made gave a cry as she caught at her neck. "My pearl is gone," she exclaimed over to see the fish. It is the great treasure of my father, and I will give a thousand pieces of gold to any one who will bring it back to me. For if I But it was impossible to get in a million years of searching. So the tween shores lined with colored lanterns, but her heart was heavy with Little Wong stood wondering about Iowa, brother-in-law and sister of the the matter. Then he saw perched on a cell of rope a moon fairy, for these tiny Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. people always come to feasts in China > sunken to the Crystal Caverns." "And what are they" asked Wong. who had heard about moon fairies all one's mental equipment to any noticeable woman who revels in the name of it is very deep," replied the fairy; "and moon Express" do the rest. Jokes, outdone by woman, who is traditionally the bottom is covered with a clean, songs, dances, and other entertainment blue sand. All back in the banks of the are dished up lavishly-almost too lavriver is caverns-great caverns of pure ishly; one feels at times that it is difficrystal, which shine like jewels in the cult to keep up with the procession. Merman.

into the water "

to keep from drowning," laughed Woog, flattering myself that I know something "The reward would mean a gread deal about matters sartorial myself, my to mother and me, for we are poor- mind totters when it comes to describthat much money would enable us to go ing that gown. She is melted and poured back up in the mountains to her old into it, I am sure, and the effect is bet-know that, this being the Feast of through the audience when she comes tives. Her humor is delicious, delight-Fishes, you can live in the water with- upon the scene, and every woman in ful and original. out drowning from sunget till dawn," the audience, no matter what she has Wong. "Do you declare and cross your sees nothing, hears nothing, and says pretty nearly the whole show, despite heart that it is honest truth?"

a falsehood?" asked the fairy indig- sion of an amateur stage critic, "Miss nantly. earth folks. It is dark now. Dive right which is literally true, take it any way down into the river with your hands you want. behind your back and a betel-nut leaf in your mouth and you will find you can to remark again that to the hard-workbreathe as easily under water as if up ling girls and men that compose it is here in the air. But remember you entertaining quality of the play producmust be back by dawn, for then the tion. There are thirty-five or forty of spell stops and you would drown." So Wong put a bit of betal leaf between his lips, clasped his hands behind his back and made a dive down into the river. Down, down, down, he sank through the cold waves till at last he felt the bottom, then he stood on his feet and took a deep breath-yes, he could breathe as easily as ever and the water did not trouble him at all. The bottom of the river was not muddy at all, but smooth and covered with bluish gravel. Fish darted about his head and before him, high above, rose the banks of the river. But these were beautiful to see. They were not of earth, but caverns of cut crystal in lovely shapes of trees and flowers. Be fore the entrance to the largest floated a pretty mermaid.

"Madame," said Wong, politely, "have you seen anything of a large, black pearl that was dropped in the river this evening?"

"Yes," said the mermaid, "I found the pearl and will give it back to you on (Continued Tomorrow)

LOCAL MENTION.

Electric Webster, 717 9th.

"The Honeymoon Express" Is Some Speeder, Declares Julia Murdock

Winter Garden Show Proves to Be One of Best Attractions Seen in Capital.

Honeymoon Express" is not the least bit disappointing to those who have grown to expect big of this organization and the bright and frothy concection that is being dished up at the Belasco this week -a conglomeration of spectacular effects, girls, songs, dances, and monologues is huge, and satisfying to the large audiences that attend nightly.

According to the program, Honeymoon Express" is a musical play n two acts. As a matter of fact the belt. It fell into the river as I leaned plot serves merely as a glorified rack, full of pegs, and on each peg hangs an old favorite-Al Jolson, Ada Lewis, Melville Ellis, Jack Story, and a dozen others, together with some newer favorites, lose it it means misfortune to me and Juliette Dika, she of the charming French accent and figure; Anna Wheaton, the little Washington girl whose pearl, for it had sunk down into the leap into fame has been a source of bottom of the muddy river. No diver gratification to her friends here who would venture into its unknown depth. have always said she would "arrive;" noticed that the princess rose, leaned and it would not be likely to be found Ray Samuels, who contributes some silly songs not altogether new, but thorough-Princess passed on down the river be- ly acceptable, and Earl Benham, graceful dancer and delightful singer.

"The Honeymoon Express" is a play for the tired business man, and the tired a business women gets tired, she is ter times as tired as the business man, and ten times as much in need of something in these columns so recently that I

The play that is being presented in to represent an Eastern harem, is alleg the Belasco this week does not tax with hours and dancing girls. A young his life, and was alarmed to see one at extent. All one needs to do is to sit lessed ances with L. Pernikoff, a bare-back in a comfortable seat and let the lessed interpretive dance which almost "Well, just below us in the river nere company that is presenting "The Honey- takes one's breath away. Not to be light that comes down through the The numbers come quickly and the waves. It is the home of the head appeal of the eye is satisfied with the beauty and novelty of the costumes "Perhaps the Merman might be able worn by the pretty chorus maldens, to to find the pearl," suggested Wong. say nothing (now that we are on the "Very likely he could," replied the subject) of that wonderful creation that fairy. "But we fairies don't like to go Miss Dika wears just before she dons her nightie and disappears from sight "I would be glad to go it I knew how 'nto her bed room. Being a woman, and ter imagined than described. Sufficient at the old friends. Miss Lewis is her "My, but you earth people are ignor- to say Miss Dika causes a murmur of ant," sneered the fairy. "You don't even approval and astonishment to float she does not need a string of adjec-"Is that true, really truly true?" asked been thinking of the moment before, show, Miss Wheaton and Al Jolson, are nothing. She is completely stunned, Wheaton has become a star in her "Did you ever hear of a fairy teiling and no wonder. To borrow the expres-"We leave such tricks to you Dika is seen at her best in this get-up,"

> To vi-ak of the chorus would be only The Kind You Have Always Bought them-perhaps more. Every girl is good looking and the men are energetic. Their work is snappy, and they appear wonders when they find the time to If You Had a Getting < Convalescing is slow business at best but the stimulation and invigoration of bouillon made from ARMOUR'S BOUILLON CUBES will hasten the process. It is a delicious blend of flavorsbeef (or chicken) with veg-etables and seasoning. Made in an instant-a cube to a cup.

and the train, which has been de

the rule at all Winter Garden shows, beyle and Dixon, the "moving men." show how well they can dance. They have the opening number and appear

Want a Toy Soldier Man." Then Mr

Dixon does a variation of the Gaby encored again and again for their ex-

Melville Ellis and Ada Lewis hand

the audience many laughs in their little piano duologue. Some of the jokes they are told with such drollery and are sprung upon the audience in such an unexpected manner, that one forgives them for the bluff and laughs heartily same old self, which is sufficient, for

The two Washington people with the

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

AT 300 1-16, loaves to the barre in your kitchen he could not make satisfactory Bread, Cakes, and Pastries from inferior

But give the average

Cream Blend

FLOUR

and she will turn out the lightest and most delicious flour products that

LTOrder "CREAM BLEND" fo

AT YOUR GROCER'S.

B. B. Earnshaw & Bro.,

anyone could desire.

$10,000 Chef

flour.

cellent work.

together later in the song and dance, "I tion is not necessary .- Then ders, or are tortured with stiff foints, and its heartg pains, you will be surprised

If smake right in through the walls, columns and linings, neutralizes, dis-tred and makes the kidneys aift out

Jolson, Ada Lewis, and

Scores of Other Favorites

urinary disorders. Croxone really will relieve your misery and do it quickly. An original package costs but a trife, and all druggists are authorized to re-

GROGAN'S

Before ou buy Furniture and Carpets for your home just stop and think of the furnishings in different homes you have seen.

There are those where everything is pleasing to the eye. A general color scheme is carried cut in different rooms, patterns in the pieces of furniture correspond, drapery effects harmonize with both

Then there are the homes where the furnishings were picked up at random in an attempt to secure bargains. It's unnecessary to remind you of what these homes resemble.

Come here and carry out your ideas. Get just what you want to make your home most attractive and comfortable. There's endless variety from which to choose: there's absolute reliability in the qualities; there's certainty that prices are right because we mark them in figures you can read.

Your purchases may be charged on open account, without notes or interest. Payments will be divided to make the terms just as easy as you

Peter Crogan & Sons Co. 817 to 823 eventh St.

The best Coke for family use All sizes. We sell to dealers only. Any oal dealer can get this coke for you.